LETTER FROM THE THE EDITOR

Your Story Needs Telling...*Badly!

Dearest Family,

It may just be the season, but we have been running particularly low on personal stories as of late. The HA Mainline is sent to over 1200 email addresses for people living all over the world. We hate to send nearly empty issues to them when we all have such amazing, painful, epic, and inspirational stories!

We get it, putting that story you pitch from the podium into black and white words on the page can sometimes feel daunting (or downright impossible). We want to make sure you understand all the various ways that WE, your humble editorial servants at The Mainline, can help you tell your story in a way you can be proud of. Check out our Submission Guidelines to see exactly how!

We ain't no Grapevine, but this is OUR meeting in print. There ARE heroin addicts out there desperately looking forward to each issue of this publication because they have no other means to access the relatability and hope that an in-person meeting provides. Now more than ever.

So, reach out! We're here to collect your tale and help you whittle it down and polish it into a gripping, powerful, helpful piece. We literally cannot tell your story without you.

Oh, and it feels really good to get your work published. There's that too ;-)

In love and service,

Aiden F.
Mainline Committee Chair
